Compatibility Review

Ranbir Kapoor and Alia Bhatt are an Air - Water combination, which brings its challenges. Alia Bhatt is the Air group person, and Ranbir Kapoor is the Water. Alia Bhatt, is the opposite of Ranbir Kapoor, as Alia Bhatt sees their efforts or desires stifled. Alia Bhatt wants to be, and needs to be, dedicated and passionate about making progress in their life, expecting to 'fly' and to travel and to go places and to do things, which Water (Ranbir Kapoor) can come to douse quickly. Its like waking up with a cold glass of water being thrown in your face every morning to start your day. It can kill the enthusiasm. Ranbir Kapoor wants to know what affect Alia Bhatt will have on their situation, and they want to know right away. The Air person wants to rise to new heights, and the Water person seeks a state that will let them be calm. It can be a challenge.

Ranbir Kapoor's Birthpath

Ranbir Kapoor is a 3 Birthpath which is a scattering number that means experience, and stands for freedom, both financially and spiritually. 3's tend to be musical, entertaining, a helper of humanity, and a peacemaker. They can be wonderful as a friend or colleague, but they would benefit from becoming more stabilized, learning system, focus and concentration. They are quick to respond to the emotions of others, have many love affairs, but are not wholly fortunate in marriage. In a romantic relationship, they can be inclined to cause separation or divorce through uncontrollable emotions. Their special ability lies in art, music, writing, acting, and the occult. To be fulfilled, they must use self-expression to work as a teacher or leader with people who want to learn. If they are open to that, they can rise to any heights through their magnetic personality and wonderful ability to express.

If not living up to their highest potential, they may tend to become more of a clock-watcher, disliking the work and losing ambition. 4 people have strong physical natures, are very honest in their dealings, but can have a temper.
